

A new way to build self-funded plans

With decades of joint experience, Novo Connection has brought together industry experts that have a drive for innovation. We built our platform to offer accessible and innovative solutions for brokers. We strip away the complexity of shopping for stop-loss and building self-funded programs. Easily build self-funded programs, get competitive stop-loss quotes, and deliver cost-saving solutions to your clients with Novo Connection.

Stand Out

We help you stand out from the crowd and keep you tapped into the latest and greatest solutions.

Vetted Vendors

Every one of our vendors goes through a comprehensive vetting process that includes site visits and intensive interviews with subject matter experts.

Stop-loss Made Easy

Novo Connection offers ultramodern program building and analytic reporting to contextualize data to work for you and your clients. Our proprietary platform provides competitive stop-loss quotes and insights into RX spend and overall performance in seconds.

Our program builder allows you to model and quote every component of self-funded plans. Our professional service team takes things to the next level by offering implementation services and ongoing program management.
