

Why Choose Novo Connection?

Simplified Quoting & Modeling

The Novo platform provides an easy way for advisors to model various self-funding strategies, understand a group's risk, customize plan designs and plan components, and secure competitive stop-loss coverage to match plan designs.

Vetted Vendors

We take the guesswork out of shopping for program components. All of our vendors have been fully-vetted by a team of industry experts to ensure that you are getting the best quality and service possible.

Instant Savings

You're not only saving time by using Novo Connection, but you'll also be saving real dollars! Our pre-negotiated vendor rates can offer substantial savings on everything from stop-loss to customized program point solutions.
